

TILLMAN AT WINTHROP.

"Pitchfork Wielder" Comes Back to Institution He Was Instrumental in Establishing.

Rock Hill, S. C., June 8.—Senator B. R. Tillman was among the prominent visitors at Winthrop college during commencement. The many friends and admirers of the venerable "pitchfork wielder" regretted very much to see him in such a feeble condition. While the senator is nothing like "down and out," he is nevertheless far from being the original spirit that he formerly was. He uses a walking cane in going around and appears to be very much handicapped by one side not working well, giving him the appearance of being partially paralyzed on one side. He was asked to deliver the diplomas to the graduates, but on account of his condition had to decline.

After a few parting words of advice to the graduating class by President Johnson, Senator Tillman came forward, leaning upon his cane. He was warmly applauded, after which he said: "Since I have been here this week my heart has been filled with happiness; happiness, not pleasure, to see how far beyond my fondest expectations this institution has expanded in its few years of existence. I am not able to make a speech; my strength will not permit, but I wish to take this occasion to congratulate myself," turning to President Johnson, "that I was instrumental in placing you at the head of this institution and to congratulate you on your wisdom, foresight and ability in building up so grand a work. I would like to make a speech, but can not, and will say good-night, perhaps good-bye, and will ask Dr. Johnson to deliver these diplomas."

NOTICE TO TAX DELINQUENTS.

Hon. Jno. L. Epps, county treasurer, has placed in my hands executions for the collection of delinquent taxes for the year 1910.

The law imposes upon me the duty to levy and collect this tax at once. This is to notify all persons who have not paid their taxes that they may save cost by coming to me and paying the same promptly. The number of executions this year is large, and I urge those who have not paid to attend to it at once.

Thirty Years Together.

Thirty years of association—think of it. How the merit of a good thing stands out in that time—or the worthlessness of a bad one. So there's no guesswork in this evidence of Thos. Ariss, Concord, Mich., who writes: "I have used Dr. King's New Discovery for 30 years, and its the best cough and cold cure I ever used." Once it finds entrance in a home you can't pry it out. Many families have used it forty years. It's the most infallible throat and lung medicine on earth. Unequaled for lagrippe, asthma, hay-fever, croup, quinsy or sore lungs. Price 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Wm. E. Pelham & Son.

In fighting to keep the blood pure the white corpuscles attack disease germs like tigers. But often germs multiply so fast the little fighters are overcome. Then see pimples, boils, eczema, salt rheum and sores multiply and strength and appetite fail. This condition demands Electric Bitters to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to expel poisons from the blood. "They are the best blood purifier," writes C. T. Budahn, of Tracy, Calif., "I have ever found." They make rich, red blood, strong nerves and build up June 1911, at 11 o'clock a. m., in the office of the Probate Judge for Newberry health.
